

Guaranteed * Cough Remedy *

When you treat a cough you want to cure it, not merely drug it into silence temporarily. The almost universal custom of placing opiates or other narcotic drugs in cough remedies makes it hard for people to select one that is safe to use and certain in results. Our is such a remedy. It contains no dangerous drugs and it is a safe family cough remedy which can be used freely by children or adults. When you need a cough remedy get this one and you'll adopt it as the one to keep in your medicine cabinet.

Has Your Stock Worms

"No," says the unscrupulous farmer, but he simply says this because he has not kept close watch of his stock. He is the man who is always wondering how in the world his neighbor keeps his horses and cattle so sleek and fat and does not feed them any more oats than he. The farmer who keeps tabs on his stock and upon the first indications of worms gets a reliable and good worm destroyer and conditioner always buys and he is the man who always has the fine-looking stock. We have just received a new shipment and can now supply your demands which we have been unable to do heretofore. This wonderful preparation is not a STOCK FOOD but a WORM DESTROYER and conditioner and comes in 10, 20, 40 and 100 lb. packages, and is cheap considering its wonderful value. It is for sale now and only at

Loren A. Sherman Dead

Loren A. Sherman, one of Port Huron's foremost citizens, died at his home on Military street, February 25th and last respects were paid to him on Tuesday afternoon when the funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. J. Campbell, former Congregational pastor and Thos. McRoberts, the present pastor. The last rites were conducted at the grave by members of William Sanborn Post, G. A. R.

Mr. Sherman began his newspaper career in Port Huron in 1870, taking the management of the weekly Times, soon afterward the Daily Times. Until 1907 he was editor and business manager, and was always recognized as an especially able editorial writer. He had travelled extensively and his interesting articles have filled many editorial columns of the Times and later the Times-Herald. He was the author of a book entitled "Science of the Soul."

Mr. Sherman was always a loyal citizen, progressive, public spirited and ever associated with the work of up-building his home city.

LESS DYSPEPSIA NOW —HERE'S THE REASON

The fact that there is less dyspepsia and indigestion in this community than there used to be is largely, we believe, due to the extensive use of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, hundreds of packages of which we have sold. No wonder we have faith in them. No wonder we are willing to offer them to you for trial entirely at our risk.

Among other things, they contain Pepsin and Bismuth, two of the greatest digestive aids known to medical science. They soothe the inflamed stomach, allay pain, check heartburn and distress, help to digest the food, and tend to quickly restore the stomach to its natural, comfortable, healthy state.

There is no red tape about our guarantee. It means just what it says. We'll ask you no questions. Your word is enough for us. If Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets don't restore your stomach to health and make your digestion easy and comfortable, we want you to come back for your money. They are sold only at the 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00—Grant Holden, Yale.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Dr. Hunter's subjects next Sabbath, March 8th, will be:

Morning (10 o'clock) "Efficient Goodness." (It is earnestly hoped that every member of both church and congregation will be present at this hour.)

Evening (6:30 Standard) "The Question of Alternatives: An Outlook upon Man's Search for Religion."

Bible School at 11:25 sharp. Owing to the severity of weather numbers sagged about half-a-dozen last Sabbath but an attendance of between one thirty and one forty with close to 85.00 of collection was not so bad. The three competing Bible Classes are having a jolly time of it—the "best ever."

Friend, stranger, everybody; there's a welcome for you and a comfortable pew. Come and get both.

Evening service sixty minutes, provided all hands are promptly on time.

Marion Munroe is quite sick at present.

Richard H. Ellar of Detroit was in Yale Friday last calling on friends.

Mrs. Sexton Grimes died at her home in Allenton today. Mrs. Grant Holden and Mrs. William Grimes will go over there tomorrow.

J. I. Rosenthal returned Monday morning from his trip to New Orleans. He claims to have had a very pleasant time while attending the Mardi Gras.

The Disciples of Mechanic street church, have called the Rev. Boleyn, of Flint to be their pastor and the call has been accepted. The new pastor was in town this week and has rented Lester Clark's house on Mary street where he and his wife will locate next week. We welcome the new comers to our midst.

If you know of anything we don't know and which the public ought to know; if it is worth knowing don't you know that it is your duty to let us know it, that the people may also know? You may know, but they don't know, unless you let us know the things which you know. That will be good for all the people, don't you know.
